Relaunch Plan

Short Term Goals

(0 - 2 Years)

Sports and Activity Bookings:

Introduce app-based reservations for activities like badminton, swimming, and yoga at select clubs.

Nutrition and Retail:

Launch a nutrition brand offering meal plans, healthy snacks, and supplements.

Sportswear Line: Roll out branded activewear and fitness equipment to boost lifestyle positioning.

Facility Optimization:

Refurbish underperforming spaces to host group activities or wellness services.

Long Term Goals

(2 - 4 Years)

Holistic Wellness:

Scale nutrition services, recovery programs, and mental health counseling to all locations.

Digital Ecosystem:

Build an all-in-one app for fitness tracking, activity bookings, and personalized recommendations.

Community Engagement:

Host local fitness challenges, sports leagues, and corporate wellness programs.

Strategic Partnerships:

Collaborate with wearable tech, sportswear, and nutrition brands for exclusive products and co-branded campaigns.

Risks to Avoid

Operational Overstretch:

Resource allocation to low-demand services or locations could strain budgets.

Customer Satisfaction Risks:

Neglecting core offerings (e.g., gym facilities) may increase churn by 10-15%.

Pricing Confusion:

Introducing complex pricing models for hybrid memberships or activity bookings could alienate customers.

Supply Chain and Vendor Risks:

Issues with sourcing for nutrition products or sportswear could damage brand reputation.
